

THE ECONOMICS OF CHILD ABUSE

A STUDY OF SAN FRANCISCO

FACT

Though the costs of child abuse are accrued over the course of the victim's life, the community will continue to incur the same cost each year until we are able to reduce and ultimately end child abuse.

WE ALL PAY THE PRICE FOR CHILD ABUSE.

CASE IN POINT

Every 9 minutes, a child abuse case is reported in the Bay Area.

64,000 reports of child abuse in the Bay Area every year.

3.6+ MILLION reports of child abuse in the U.S. every year.

5,100+ reports of child abuse in San Francisco every year.

$226.5 MILLION

This is the cost to the San Francisco community for the 509 verified cases last year.

That same amount of money could send more than 24,000 kids to preschool.

FACT

CHILD ABUSE INCIDENTS ARE VASTLY UNDERREPORTED

and could cost the community as much as

$6.5 BILLION

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

WHO PAYS?

Child abuse survivors need more assistance from CHILD WELFARE services

Survivors are more likely to fall into the CRIMINAL JUSTICE system

Survivors often need extra support in EDUCATION

Survivors require more physical and mental HEALTHCARE

Survivors have more difficulty holding down a job, impacting ECONOMIC PRODUCTIVITY

In addition to children and their families, we all pay the cost of child abuse

TAX PAYERS

INSTITUTIONS

BUSINESSES

SOCIETY AT LARGE

THE OPPORTUNITY

If we directed half of what we pay for child abuse into prevention, it would increase:

Economic Prosperity & Equality

Healthy & Thriving Communities

Safe & Happy Children and reduce child abuse by up to 48%

FACT

ENDING CHILD ABUSE PROTECTS CHILDREN AND THE ECONOMY.

Let's Cut The #CostOfAbuse, Once And For All.
